MINISTERS'
REPORTS

Two particular challenges shaped much of my work in 2010: balancing our church's budget in an economic climate that continues to be difficult, and leading the congregation through a time of significant staff transition.

My goal in the former, budgetary, challenge has been to make necessary reductions without compromising the core ministries of the Brick Church, ministries that are our very call and identity. This has led to some new and happy efficiencies, but it has also meant difficult decisions to trim mission outreach giving, reduce the capital allowance spending, modify parts of the music program, and keep most salaries flat. On the other side of the budget equation, generous giving in 2010 - giving that almost (but not quite) met the stewardship goal - allowed us to balance our slightly reduced budget without overspending the draw on Brick Church's endowment.

The second challenge, staff transition, had two components. The first was the decision of Associate Minister for Christian Education and Discipleship, Christiane Lang, to return to Princeton Theological Seminary to pursue Ph.D. studies after five years of extraordinary service to Brick Church. In her time with us, Christy raised educational programs for children, youth and adults to new heights, and touched the lives of so many in her pastoral ministry and preaching. She showed us our potential in so many areas. At the same time, an exhaustive, three-year process to study and strategize about our church's ministry to children, youth and families was coming to its "penultimate conclusion" - the decision to seek two trained, full-time leaders in this area of work so central to Brick. Heretofore, the process had envisioned a search for one leader; now it would be a search for two. We almost immediately found two wonderful interim leaders in Associate Minister for Christian Education Erin Keys, and Interim Youth Director Aram Bae. Next, an excellent Associate Pastor's Nominating Committee was elected in the fall to conduct a search for two, more permanent, leaders, at least one of whom will be an ordained minister.

But even more than particular challenges such as these two I've named, my central challenge as your pastor is simply to enable you, the people I serve, to deepen your Christian faith and the faithful living of your lives. Ultimately, this is not exactly my work (as if any mere mortal could do such), but that of the Holy Spirit. My task is to create opportunities by which that Spirit might open us up, both as individuals and as a congregation, to God's presence and leading in our individual lives and in our life together as Brick Church.

I would be remiss if I did not thank all my wonderful staff colleagues, especially Doug King, Erin Keys, my wunderbar new Administrative Assistant, Lena Tharp, indeed all committed staff colleagues, faithful members of Session, Trustees, Deacons, assorted committees, and especially you, the members of this congregation I have come to love and with whom I count it a privilege to minister.

Yours in Christ,

“When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him...”

The narrative of the road to Emmaus in the gospel of Luke tells the story of the resurrected Jesus journeying with two of his disciples. As they walk along the road, Jesus teaches them from the scriptures but his disciples fail to recognize him. It is only at table in the breaking of the bread that they recognize Jesus in their midst.

In the fall of this year the newly formed Lay Pastoral Care Group and I have been serving home communion to some of our members who cannot regularly join us in worship. It has led me to ruminate on this wonderful text from Luke. It has been so meaningful to be sharing the sacrament in people’s homes and it has reminded me how much our faith is shaped by the breaking of bread together. It has once again opened my eyes to how the breaking of bread together reveals Jesus Christ in our midst.

Of course this is most obviously demonstrated when we celebrate the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper but there are many ways in which we break bread together that can reveal God’s presence in our midst. The wonderful work of the Congregational Fellowship committee allows us to break bread together at the Annual Meeting Dinner, the Advent Potluck, the Strawberry Festival, Summer Barbecues, and coffee hours following worship. Their sustained efforts continue to pull us together as a church family.

The ministry of our Deacons allows for the breaking of bread in a variety of ways. From the obvious feeding programs of Cooks Who Care, Yorkville Common Pantry and the Friday Night Dinner Program to everything they do to help those in need. All of their efforts with underprivileged children to the homebound elderly, from building homes to caring for the homeless, from sharing time with pregnant teenagers to organizing blood drives, I am constantly amazed at the compassion, creativity, and commitment they bring to their faithful work. All of these efforts of sharing ourselves with others are a way of breaking bread together, of revealing Christ in our midst.

I am constantly amazed by the myriad of ways that different parts of this congregation find ways to demonstrate the divine in our midst. The ministry of our New Member/Evangelism committee and their faithful commitment to ever widening the circle of our church family is about breaking bread together. Their thoughtful efforts to ensure that we are a community of hospitality and a place where people may grow in their understanding of what it means to be a member of this body, continually reveal Christ in our midst. The Communications committee has continued their efforts to improve our website and all of the ways we communicate as an institution that God may be revealed by what we do together. The Mission Outreach committee, in its efforts to improve our collaboration in how every corner of our congregation reaches out to those in need, is revealing Christ in our midst. The Grants committee and their compassionate and meticulous efforts to support worthy agencies is always opening my eyes to the ways in which God is at work in the world helping those who need it so desperately.

In the past year so many of you in so many ways have broken bread before me and opened my eyes to the presence of God right in front of me. Congregation members and colleagues alike, I am grateful for your work and your witness played out before me day after day. This year, as in every year, you have inspired me and taught me so much of what it means to be faithful. I thank you for everything and for the good news we share together.

“When he was at table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him...”

A WORD
ERIN KEYS

This past year has been a time of change for the Christian Education program. I would like to extend many thanks to all who have welcomed me to Brick Church. Since my arrival in August I have been struck by the warmth and hospitality of this community. I am most thankful for the opportunity to serve God along side of you. I am also grateful for the many volunteers who serve as Teachers, Committee Chairs and Members, and supporters of the Christian Education program. It has been a joy to get to know you and to work with you in furthering the mission of educating our adults, youth and children.

Despite this being a transitional period, Christian Education at Brick Church continues to flourish thanks to the dedication of our staff and volunteers. Here is a snapshot of the past year:

Children's Ministries: Sunday Church School has over 300 children registered in the twos through 7th grade. We have over 100 dedicated volunteer teachers, superintendents, music leaders, and support volunteers, and a committee of people who care deeply about children's learning and growth. Abby Smith, our Sunday School Support Worker has been with Brick the past year and her hard work has made a significant impact on the overall functioning of SCS. Abby prepares all materials needed for SCS each week, and the teachers notes about the upcoming lesson. Abby also supports our other children's programs by running at the annual Christmas Storytelling party and overseeing the costumes for the Christmas Pageant. We are so lucky to have her!

This year, the Children's Ministries Committee hosted two Teacher Trainings for our volunteer SCS teachers.

These trainings set the goals for the SCS year and offered tips for teaching different ages. We were fortunate to have Marta King lead a workshop on classroom control at our second Teacher Training. Marta brings over 15 years of teaching experience and her workshop was most appreciated. We also saw improvement in our curriculum for the 4th/5th grade class thanks to CMC member Kim Purvis. Kim took it upon herself to rework many of the lessons from our curriculum in order to make them more engaging for our 4th and 5th graders. This was a huge undertaking and I am grateful for Kim's passion and dedication. I want to thank all the volunteers, the Children's Ministries Committee, and especially Elder Yvonne Wikstrom and Claudia Simmons for their commitment to children's education at Brick.

Youth Ministry: This year youth ministry was aided greatly by the addition of Aram Bae. Aram joined Brick in August as our part-time, Interim Youth Director. Aram as worked hard to foster the growth of the youth program at Brick. Under her leadership numbers at events like Beanbag have increased. We are thrilled she has joined Brick and are greatly inspired by her dedication to youth.

Another change to the youth program has been the addition of a new worship service for Brick youth. This service is called Take-Out and is an in home worship service that meets once a month from 5pm-7pm. This service was inspired by Peter Manning who has graciously opened his home to this wonderful new ministry. Take-Out is led by members of the youth group who collaborate with Aram and me. The youth ministries committee is thrilled with the success of this new program.

I would like to thank the members of the three youth sub-committees: Pioneers (5th-6th grades), the 7th-8th grade committee, and the High School committee. Special thanks to Elder Peter Manning, Linda Simpson, Dru Haskin, Anna Casperson and Jackie Hennessey. I love working with you and I am continually inspired by your commitment to youth.

Adult Education: This year Adult Education has offered a rich variety of classes that has drawn a wealth of talented speakers. Our classes have provided attendees with the opportunity to explore their faith deeper and learn about the history of the church and Presbyterianism. I have been delighted in working with the Adult Education committee. Their enthusiasm for this aspect of church ministry is encouraging and an inspiration to me. The Men's and Women's Bible studies, joined in by over 50 people through the year, have been a continued time of learning and reflection on our scripture and our faith. Adult Ed has also sponsored a Women's Retreat this year which is a very exciting endeavor. Many thanks especially to Elder Debbie Seraphim for her dedication and passion for Adult Education and to Helen Lynch for her support of Women's Bible Study.

New Members and Evangelism:

This year has seen many wonderful new members join our church. The New Members and Evangelism Committee has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure that every new member learns about the church, is personally welcomed, and is invited to engage in the work of the church. Special thanks to Abe Cary, our dedicated Chair.

Finally, I would like to say thank you again to all the wonderful people here at Brick Church. I have felt truly blessed to be invited into your church and your lives this year. I would also like to thank my wonderful colleagues who have patiently answered all of my questions and have inspired me with their humor, creativity and enthusiasm for this church. Special thanks to Caitlin Sparks, the Assistant to the Associate Pastors, who has worked extremely hard behind the scenes to make this transition as smooth as possible.

Blessings,

ERIN M. KEYS

MINISTRY OF MUSIC

The year 2010 was yet another memorable year for our Ministry of Music. Our superb Chancel Choir provided music at worship services throughout the year. The Chancel Choir and soloists also presented its annual performance of Sir John Stainer's "The Crucifixion" on Good Friday. The Candlelight Carol Service in December brought one of its largest audiences to experience this beautiful service of music. At the Candlelight Carol Service, our recently restored 1898 Steinway C Concert Grand piano had its debut. We are most grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Wilson for their generosity in providing the funding to have this rare but neglected piano restored to world class, concert status. The restoration work was performed over a nine month period by Klavierhaus in New York City, widely recognized as one of the finest restorers of concert pianos. The Wilsons' magnanimous gift will enhance our music ministry for generations to come.

Our children's music program continues to experience growth under the gifted and caring hands of Amanda Page Smith. The children's choirs regularly participate in the worship on Family Sunday and on other Sundays throughout the year. The children presented a wonderful pageant at the family service on Christmas Eve. Our Teen Choir, composed of members of the Confirmation Class and others, also participated in worship several times during the year. Amanda Page Smith, the children and teens, assisting musicians, and all the parent helpers are to be commended for their magnificent work in this most important part of our music ministry.

For the third year, Brick Church and the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music sponsored a Sacred Music Internship at Brick Church during January. This year's intern was Wesley Hall. This internship provides invaluable, hands-on experience in all aspects of the ministry of music for those training to be organists and choir directors.

In closing, the Minister of Music would like to thank the Pastors, the members of the various choirs, Amanda Page Smith, associate organist Dr. John B. Herrington III, the Worship and Music Committee and its chairs, Dr. Frederick A. Ehlert and Christopher Randall, and all those who assist us throughout the year. It is through the efforts of these people that our music program remains one of the finest in the country.

Faithfully,

KEITH S. TÓTH,
MINISTER OF MUSIC AND ORGANIST

SESSION
COMMITTEE

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY COMMITTEE

The Session Committee on Archives and History was created by the Session of The Brick Presbyterian Church in the City of New York in 2001 to identify and preserve items of historic value and interest as they relate to the Brick Presbyterian Church, the Presbytery of New York City, the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the City of New York. The committee is composed of persons with special skills in the disciplines of collecting, cataloging and preserving of historic artifacts. The Clerk of Session is the convener of the committee. Present members of the Committee are; Peter H. Brown, Holly Burke, Frederick Ehlert, Griffith Foxley, Kathleen Kaasch, Lois Lovett, Elise W. Smith, Ellsworth G. Stanton III, Margaret Stocker. E. Deane Turner and Margaret Van Cott. Margaret Holben Ellis is a consultant and has been responsible for the conservation of some historic artifacts. She is President of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Historical Society, the official repository of the history of the Presbyterian Church (USA), located in Philadelphia. The committee is responsible for the maintenance of the Herbert B. Anderson Library and Archives.

The committee is charged with the preservation of minutes of Session, the Board of Trustees, and other documents of historic significance, working in tandem with the Presbyterian Historical Society, where most of the original materials are kept. Bound materials, such as Orders of Worship, The Record and books and papers written by Brick Church clergy and laity are cataloged and shelved. There is an ongoing program of conservation and cataloging of materials, some sent to Philadelphia, most microfilmed for ready accessibility in our library. We continue to solicit contributions of books and documents that would enhance our collection.

Current activities include the identification and cataloging of photographs and prints, mainly 20th century, and responding to the many requests from researchers and former members regarding their ancestors. The committee has secured a microfilm recorder and a computer notebook for cataloging the many books and documents in the archives. The paper records of marriages, baptisms and deaths are being incorporated into the computer record keeping system. We hope to initiate the printing of a consolidated membership information record encompassing the period from 1908 until the present.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: ADULT EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The mission of the Adult Education Committee is to enrich and deepen the spiritual lives of The Brick Church's congregation by developing a variety of educational opportunities focusing on the Bible, History, Theology, Spirituality or Social/Current Events. We strive to design classes that offer relevant applications for each participant and to create a curriculum that appeals to varied interests—challenging us, inviting us to explore old ideas in new ways, offering new insights or just touching our hearts and minds in a provocative way.

We launched our 2010-2011 program year with a series entitled "A Walk Through the Bible: Genesis to Revelation." The Reverends Lindvall, King and Keys each taught a Sunday on the Old and New Testaments. In October, we carried on our historical survey of our Christian roots by scanning 1,500 years of history to discuss heresies, medieval Christianity and the Reformation. We finished our sprint through history with a series entitled "Being Presbyterian: Looking Forward, Embracing our Roots." This year, to celebrate Advent, we created a series called "The Sounds, Scenes and Scriptures of Advent," and studied scripture, art and music to prepare our hearts for the coming of the Messiah.

The New Year opened with Brad Agry from Career TeamPartners leading a session on Careers and Call. For the first time in Adult Education, we hosted a winter film series with a special 12:45 p.m. film screening complete with pizza, popcorn and post movie discussions on how our faith is challenged or revealed in films. Another new event this year was our Women's Retreat, held on Saturday, February 5, at Reverend Keys' manse. Student Minister Margaret Mitsuyasu helped develop and lead the retreat with Reverend Keys, which combined Bible study, prayer and teaching on spiritual disciplines which the women could incorporate into their daily lives.

We hosted a Bible study for Lent, with each session led by one of our three student ministers, and we finished the year with a series on Contemporary Issues in Christianity. Special evening classes this year included a four part series on "Raising Christian Kids" with guest speakers each addressing a particular age group. Parents were taught about various developmental issues children experience at different stages in their lives and learned ways to love, discipline and parent their children within the context of their Christian faith.

Additionally, Adult Education sponsors weekly Men's and Women's Bible Studies. Reverend Lindvall teaches the men's study. This year, the women's study was taught via a team approach, rotating between Reverend Keys, Student Minister Margaret Mitsuyasu and other members of the congregation. A Summer Bible Study, led by members of the congregation, continues June through August.

The Adult Education Committee includes Debbie Seraphim, chair, Sarah Wetenhall, secretary, and members Jay Batten, Scrip Gonzalez, Charlene Kuo, Susan Mays and Kurt Roeloffs. Student Minister Margaret Mitsuyasu returned this year as part of the "Teaching Ministry" program at Princeton Theological Seminary. Margaret is specifically interested in Adult Education and developed and taught many classes for us this year. We are especially thankful for the leadership of The Reverend Erin Keys, our pastoral advisor, who joined us in August of 2010 and has taken over Christian Education with grace and sensitivity.

DEBRA N. SERAPHIM, CHAIR

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The CMC's primary function is to oversee the Brick Church Sunday Church School (SCS), as well as to see the organization and planning of other programs and events for children that take place throughout the year. As of the start of 2011, over 300 children, infants to 7th graders, are registered in SCS. With the exception of one part-time support worker, Abby Smith, the SCS is run by volunteers from the congregation. This includes over 90 teachers, five musicians, and four superintendents, all of whom are committed and dedicated to this ministry. The SCS started the 2010-11 school year with a teacher training session on September 11 and followed up with a refresher session on January 8. Topics discussed at teacher training range from fire safety and church policy to bible storytelling techniques designed to encourage student participation, and classroom control and discipline.

This year the SCS continued to use the lectionary-based curriculum Seasons of the Spirit for three-year olds through third graders and We Believe: A Survey of the New Testament for grades four through seven. Seasons of the Spirit is a fine-arts focused curriculum designed for churches that value spiritual growth, tradition and liturgy, and Biblical understanding. We Believe, which is used in our 4th and 5th grade class alternates each year between the Old and New Testaments, reflects the church's commitment to helping older children learn to read the Bible with heart and mind as they prepare for Confirmation. CMC member Kim Purvis also wrote additional lessons for the 4th/5th grade class seeing a need for more engaging lessons for this high-energy group. The CMC committee is grateful for her hard work on this project.

To ensure that teachers are supported in their role, weekly teacher studies are led by our three seminarians at the 10:00 a.m. hour. The study provides the teachers with an hour of time before the start of class to pray, review the lesson plan, and discuss the scripture passage of the day.

The CMC committee is also grateful to our hard working nursery volunteers. Our nursery co-chairs, Susah Frehse, Margaret Vitrano and Rosie Pope, have focused on recruitment and increased parent involvement, enabling the committee to reduce babysitting costs, which directly impacted the overall budget for the year. A hearty thanks to all of the parents who faithfully volunteer in these busy rooms.

Other events sponsored by the CMC include Third Grade Bible Presentation Sunday, the Palm Sunday Service Project, games and activities for the All-Church Picnic and Strawberry Festival, the Christmas Ornament Making Party, Sanctuary Tree Decorating, the Christmas Storytelling Party, the Christmas Pageant, and the Ash Wednesday Dinner and Seed Planting. The CMC also continues to sponsor the weekly food drive on Sundays, with donations going to the Jan Hus Homeless Outreach and Advocacy program.

Members serving the Children's Ministry Committee in 2010 were Christy Swartz, Susan Frehse, Genevieve Monsma, Kim Purvis, Allison Smith, Galen Laserson, Clare Pickering, and Graham Clark. Our sincerest thanks go to our pastoral advisor Erin Keys, to the Children's Music Ministries Director Amanda Smith, Sunday School Support Worker, Abby Smith, and the Assistant to the Associate Pastors, Caitlin Sparks for all of their support and their dedication.

YVONNE LYNCH WIKSTROM AND CLAUDIA SIMMONS, CO-CHAIRS

With more than 200 youth in fifth through 12th grades, the Brick Church's Youth Ministry has maintained a steady and consistent program for its younger members. Following the advice and mission of the Youth Renovation Team, the new position for a Youth Director was created to continue its focused ministry and to strengthen an active involvement among the youth. The Youth Ministry is staffed by Rev. Erin Keys, the Interim Associate Pastor for Christian Education and Discipleship, and Aram Bae, the interim director of youth and family ministries. Elder Peter Manning serves as the chair of the Youth Ministry Committee (YMC), Elodie de Bethmann is our youth deacon, and Connor Huff is our youth elder.

Our fifth and sixth graders make up the Pioneers group. Anna Caspersen, Dru Haskin, and Jackie Hennessey serve together as our co-chairs for the Pioneers. Along with nine other subcommittee members, they are the adults whose organized efforts make it possible for our Pioneers to enjoy annual events such as the Apple Picking Trip, Halloween Scarefest, and the Sleepover. The Pioneers have also participated in service projects, such as designing Holiday cards for residents involved with the Search and Care Ministry at the annual Advent Potluck Dinner and making sandwiches for the Yorkville Common Pantry during the Sleepover. Deacons Matias Stinch and Dru Haskin have been instrumental in creating opportunities for our Pioneers to be involved with community service.

The seventh and eighth grade subcommittee is co-chaired by Peter Manning and Linda Simpson. With eight other subcommittee members, they have been actively committed in organizing fellowship events such as the Halloween Party and service projects for local organizations such as the Yorkville Common Pantry and the NYC Marathon. The seventh and eighth graders have also been actively involved in one of our new programs this year: Brick Take Out. Take Out is a monthly evening worship designed and led by youth (seventh and above). Take Out includes a message delivered by one of the pastors, communion and contemporary music during the worship. Following the worship service is a time of pizza and fellowship. Take Out began in October, and it has become a well-attended monthly gathering with an average of 15 youth. Members of our high school youth group have also been involved in writing and reading liturgy.

There are two consistent programs that involve all the youth in fifth through 12th grades on a regular basis: BEANBAG and FNDP (Friday Night Dinner Program). This year's BEANBAG hour has served as a weekly fellowship time for all those who regularly attend church. Immediately following Sunday Church School, the youth gather together behind the stage in Watson Hall for a time of fellowship. On a typical Sunday, one will find a group of six to eight youth members hanging out behind the stage with pizza in hand.

Our youth-led FNDPs are held on the first and third Fridays of every month. Parent guest chefs such as Allison Gray, Len Carrell, Gloria Altherr, and Liz McCreery have been helpful in planning fun and appetizing meals for our FNDPs. Our highest attendance was 16, and our average is eight. This has been a popular service project among the local teens in the neighborhood, attracting high school students who are not Brick Church members but want to be involved with a consistent service project.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: YOUTH MINISTRY COMMITTEE

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION:
YOUTH

The 2010-2011 Confirmation class is made up of 16 youth who have been meeting for classes since October. The class has been active in the life of the church by reading and singing in worship, collecting funds for local organizations and volunteering with FNDP, Day of Discipleship, and cooking for Coffee Hour. This is a great class and we are excited to welcome these youth into church membership on Confirmation Sunday.

Following the suggestion of the Youth Ministry Renovation Team, this year we started a weekly fellowship time for just our upper school youth called Breakfast Club, which meets every Sunday morning before worship during the same time as Adult Education. While we started meeting in the conference room on the sixth floor, we've moved to gathering at a local coffee shop where the high schoolers prefer to meet. At the moment, it is a small gathering of just two or three youth, but we plan to continue to meet, hoping to add more to our morning coffee group. Future activities such as the Annual All Youth Ski Trip, Ice Skating for Pioneers, and Watson Hall Night for our sixth through eighth graders serve as events where our youth can fellowship together, solidifying a community of youth who come to care for one another.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

The communications committee continued focus in 2010 was on expanding the use of our new website. Our website support company, Magic Hour, was acquired by Global Internet Management (GIM) in 2010, and as a result, our website was updated to use GIM's content management system. The new content management system is superior in several ways and enables easier navigation for the standard user. The GIM content management system has made it easier for church and Day School staff to update their own web pages, and many are doing so on a regular basis, particularly The Day School teachers. However, the conversion did pose some transition challenges for our system administrator, which at this writing, have been largely overcome.

One of our 2010 goals was to expand use of the emailing capabilities of the website and to improve eRecord mailing. We successfully emailed the eRecord for the first half of 2010 which has been very well received by the congregation. During the GIM content management system transition, we had to interrupt eRecord online delivery which will resume in early 2011. Additionally, The Day School has created an online newsletter called BrickByBrick which was successfully launched in 2010.

With the startup and content management issues of the new website largely accomplished in 2010, the committee will be turning its attention to building upon the web platform in 2011. The committee will be exploring tactics to steer more congregational traffic and interactions to the website to create a dynamic and interactive web interface. Adding video live streaming and more audio file features to the website will also be a 2011 communications goal. Finally, the committee will be evaluating the application of social media as a congregational communication vehicle.

Special thanks are due to Bill Ryckman and Christopher Randall who served as Co-chairs of the Committee as well as Grace Diggs, Barbara Meachin, Lydia Spinelli, Melissa Morgan and the Reverend Doug King.

JAY BATTEN, CHAIR

CONGREGATIONAL FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE

The Congregational Fellowship Committee (CFC) encourages and supports fellowship within The Brick Church. We hope that some aspect of the fellowship programs of our church will reach each member of our congregation and that members will benefit both by attending events and by volunteering. Working with Rev. Doug King, the CFC endeavors to extend the fellowship of the church to all members by three means:

- Activities surrounding Sunday worship: the CFC arranges greeters in the narthex before worship and organizes the coffee hour following the service.
- Annual events for the entire congregation: the Advent Potluck Supper, the Congregational Dinner preceding the Annual Meeting of the Congregation, and the All-Church Picnic and Strawberry Festival are traditions in which we seek to include all members of the church family. During the summer, Men's Barbecues, Women's Barbecues and the Softball League extend the fellowship of the church to smaller groups of members.
- Support of groups within our congregation - CFC offers support for groups which attract different constituencies within our church: PrimeTimers, Young Adults, and The Women's Association.

In the past year, CFC has continued its efforts to improve the attendance by church members at the committee sponsored events and to increase the number of volunteers who organize and stage those events. In that regard, the CFC has worked closely with the New Member Committee to recruit members who recently joined the church to participate in CFC programs, recognizing that either attending or participating in these programs constitutes an easy and convenient means of introducing these new members to other members of the church as well as to the full life of the church. Specifically, CFC has tried to coopt new members to volunteer to greet arrivals at the church doors for the Sunday worship service, a program that has met and is meeting with increasing success.

An ongoing challenge for the CFC involves coffee hours following Sunday worship services. Last year, as a means of addressing the need for budgetary reductions, CFC changed the format by offering refreshments at coffee hour are provided entirely by volunteers (as opposed to church-funded refreshment purchases). We believe that the sense of fellowship at coffee hour is enhanced as members of the congregation provide for each other. Having said that, CFC acknowledges that securing volunteers on a weekly basis to donate refreshments for coffee hours is a more difficult proposition and not always successful.

CFC sponsored events and programs are successful only because of the dedicated efforts of so very many enthusiastic volunteers who donate unselfishly their time, their talents and resources - far too many members and friends to list here in this report (as well as our fear that we may inadvertently miss a deserving name). Heartfelt thanks to you all. Notwithstanding, we must especially thank Joan Podell and Pat Allen for the festive Advent Potluck Supper; and Pat Allen also for the delicious Congregational Dinner. Finally, many thanks to Elders Abe Cary (as Chair of New Members Committee), Helen Chapman and Stefan Kruger for their invaluable help in the work of the committee.

DRU HASKIN AND GRIF FOXLEY, CHAIRS

On October 7, The Brick Church School celebrated two landmark events: the school's 70th birthday and the dedication of its new art studio. In recognition of these special events in the life of the school, a reception was held on the actual anniversary of the day Brick first opened its doors back in 1940. In the past 70 years the school has grown from 6 to 161 children, and has seen not only its enrollment but also its faculty, programs, curriculum, facility and more develop and excel. The recent addition of the art studio, created in the spirit of the ateliers of the early childhood schools in Reggio Emilia, Italy, is the latest example of the Brick community's tremendous commitment to providing our students with an unparalleled educational experience.

Brick is proud to be accredited by the New York State Association of Independent Schools (NYSAIS) and has the distinction of being the second early childhood school to have received accreditation by the organization. Every ten years, the school undergoes an intensive reaccreditation process, beginning with a thorough self-examination of all aspects of the school, from its educational program, to governance, to culture and values, to financial management and more. A manual provided by NYSAIS guides this process, providing criteria and questions to ensure a thoughtful, analytical exploration of how successfully the school is living its mission and meeting its stated goals. The resulting self-study report is a lengthy document prepared for submission to NYSAIS. The report is shared with a visiting committee of professionals from other NYSAIS schools who spend four days observing, getting to know the community, and determining how accurately the self-study report represents the school.

Brick's most recent reaccreditation process began in the spring of 2009, when faculty, administrators, Day School Committee members, and parents were informed about what the self-study would entail and were asked to volunteer to serve on subcommittees for the various sections of the self-study report. Once subcommittees were established, the first order of business was to revise the school's mission statement to ensure it accurately and succinctly expressed Brick's purpose. The revision process began in committee, then expanded to include the entire faculty, and resulted in a strong statement that was approved by the Day School Committee and the Session of The Brick Presbyterian Church.

With the revised mission in place, the self-study process proceeded in earnest, with subcommittees working throughout the 2009-10 school year on drafts of their sections. All sections were integrated into the report and the final document was a detailed description of every aspect of The Brick Church School, with proud explanations of our strengths, along with thoughtful considerations of challenges and areas for future improvements. Overall it was a highly positive report, showing the great pride felt by all the subcommittee members for the work we do at Brick and the program we offer our students.

The final step in the reaccreditation process took place this past November, when the visiting committee came to the school to observe in classrooms and meet with members of the school community. Those four days were a flurry of activity for the school, and our gracious visiting committee displayed their care and diligence as they worked hard to cover so much ground in such a short period of time.

The feedback received by the visiting committee was overwhelmingly positive and the School was approved for reaccreditation in February.

The self-study process demands a great deal of time and effort on the part of many members of the school community. However, in the end, any hardship endured is well worth it when considered in light of the growth and increased self-awareness that come from the opportunity to engage in such a rigorous process. There is no doubt that the work that went into obtaining reaccreditation served to make Brick stronger, helping to clarify our goals for the future while boosting morale with its affirmation of all we have to be proud of.

JOINT FINANCE COMMITTEE

The primary responsibility of the Joint Finance Committee is to set the budget for the church year, to monitor the church finances on a monthly basis, and to review non-budgeted requests during the church year. The committee is chaired by a member of Session, and includes representatives from the Trustees and Session, as well as other church members. The following individuals were active members of the committee in 2010: Henry Barkhorn, Patrick Barrett, Constance Dalvito, Stefan Kruger, Frances Laserson, Roger Miller, Louisa Palmer, Joseph Sauvage and Rick Stowe. Church staff members include the Rev. Michael Lindvall, Laila Al-Askari and Lenwood Cross.

Knowing that 2010 budget preparation would be challenging given continuing financial concerns, the committee began its work in early spring 2010. By mid-September, Laila Al-Askari, the Director of Administration and Finance, had prepared 2010 budget packages for all committee heads to begin establishing their priorities for the new year.

The Stewardship committee reduced the pledge goal from $2,500,000 to $2,250,000. Given the lower pledge goal the Joint Finance Committee members met with each committee head and key staff members to look for additional cost reductions and efficiencies. Together, we identified savings of almost $200,000 in order to deliver a balanced 2010 budget. We decreased the “per-capita” Presbytery apportionment as per Session action in April 2010. Further reductions were made in the maintenance fund in order to achieve a balanced budget. It is important to note that these savings were achieved while maintaining a summer choir and a full mission outreach program.

Significant areas of cost reduction included i) plant services, where fuel prices were locked in; ii) pension and benefit costs, where the church moved from a defined benefit plan to a defined contribution plan; iii) insurance and employee benefit costs, where close evaluation and negotiation of the commercial insurance program and the healthcare plan helped to reduce expenditures for those items; and iv) mailing and printing, where many print materials (i.e. Annual Membership Directory, Annual Report, etc.) were sent to the congregation in electronic format.

The 2011 pledge goal of $2.2 million was challenging, but has been achieved with the help of all committees working closely together. It is essential that our congregation ensures that outstanding pledge balances are paid and each member makes a strong, thoughtful commitment for upcoming years in their pledges.

Thanks to all committee heads, the church support team, the Stewardship Committee (for setting realistic targets), as well as all members of the Joint Finance Committee, we were able to submit a balanced budget proposal which was passed in the December 2010 Session meeting.

Special thanks to Laila and her team for their dedication in providing ongoing support to the committee. Their diligence allows the committee to make informed decisions that keep our church on solid financial ground.

STEFAN KRUGER, CHAIR

MISSION OUTREACH COMMITTEE

The Mission Outreach Committee was created by the Session in 2004 to serve as an umbrella organization to strategize, prioritize, coordinate, make and monitor benevolence and outreach decisions church-wide. The committee includes representation from the Grants Committee, the Capital Campaign Outreach Committee, the Day of Discipleship Task Force, the Deacons, the Women's Association, Young Adults and PrimeTimers.

The Grants Committee and the Capital Campaign Outreach Committee operate as sub-committees of Mission Outreach. The committee continually reviews the church's volunteer ministries and monetary benevolence activities.

In 2010, the Mission Outreach Committee was proud to present the third annual Day of Discipleship. More than 150 Brick Church members participated in a day filled with service and fellowship. Volunteers worked to create a garden on the rooftop at Neighborhood Coalition for Shelter, paint the facilities at the Church of the Good Neighbor, serve meals at Stanley Isaac, and distribute food and plant flowers at Yorkville Common Pantry. In addition, the Youth Floor was filled with family friendly activities allowing young children and their parents to participate. Members of the Committee are Michael Barnes, Len Carrell, Sophie Kramer, Emily Main, Jane Muqaddam, Ashley Reid, Natalie Clare and Gracey Stoddard. The Committee would like to thank the Rev. Douglas King for his continuing advice and counsel.

PATRICK BARRETT, CHAIR

Grants Subcommittee

The Grants Committee, a sub-committee of Mission Outreach, is entrusted with the task of determining which organizations should receive Brick Church Benevolence grants. We were very pleased to be able to distribute $350,000 in 2010. Given the troubled economic climate, the Grants Committee feels truly blessed to have a budget of $350,000 to distribute in 2010, due to the extraordinary generosity of this Congregation through Stewardship. So many of the organizations that we have come to know are struggling to cope with a surge in demand for their services while experiencing significant declines in contributions and, in some cases, government funding. Every dollar that we are able to give in 2011 will be appreciated as never before. The Brick Church Benevolences go to a number of community organizations, many of long-standing relationship with The Brick Church. These organizations are grouped into these categories: Presbyterian and Related Projects, Seminaries and Religious Organizations, Basic Needs, Family Needs, Youth, and Elderly. Our funds typically go to support the general operating budgets of these organizations or are directed to special projects or needs.

The Grants Committee works diligently throughout the year to review all candidates through an in-depth evaluation process, which includes a thorough review of the program, its success metrics, the financials of the organization as well as an on-site evaluation. Each organization is evaluated on a number of criteria including overall mission, organizational effectiveness, community served, and the degree to which The Brick Church and its members participate in the organization's activities as volunteers. The Committee's recommendations are presented to Session for approval. In 2010, we were pleased to give grants to 42 organizations, including two new organizations. We will continue to adapt our review process to disburse much-needed funds in 2011 to organizations in a timely fashion given the increased need, while maintaining our high standards of diligence. The committee this year was comprised of the following individuals: Peter Bohner, Len Carrell, Helen Chapman, Natalie Clare, Amanda Dreyer, Brenda Earl, Karen Fang, Tamara Leuchtenburg, Valerie Mason, Elizabeth Miller, Jane Muqaddam, Helen Pennoyer, Clare Pickering, Wibby Sevens, and Cindy Watson. As always, we are grateful to the Rev. Doug King for his thoughtful guidance and counsel.

NEW MEMBERS AND EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

The mission of the New Member and Evangelism Committee is to welcome and usher fellow Christians into church membership and to help develop and deepen the spiritual life of our visitors. In 2010, our dedicated committee members enabled the committee to fulfill its mission with enthusiasm and to build upon the initiatives already in place. Between October 2009 and May 2010, we welcomed 75 new members into our congregation. This compares to 74 new members in the same period the prior year.

New Member and Evangelism Committee members are friendly and welcoming ambassadors for our church. Besides extending the right hand of fellowship to people in the multi-faceted opportunities available at The Brick Church, we continue to sponsor and support our own regular programs.

During 2010, our committee helped to welcome new members to Brick membership in the following ways:

We organized and hosted a series of 22 Membership Meetings for potential members. This includes four Saturday morning sessions focusing on “The People and Ministries of The Brick Presbyterian Church” in which we invite committee representatives and the pastors to speak about various aspects of life at the church. We also provided breakfast and time for individual introductions, questions, and photo-taking for The Record.

We hosted four New Member Sundays, which include a pro re nata meeting of the session prior to worship and a receiving line during coffee hour where we encourage our members to greet those who joined that day.

We hosted four receptions for new members at the Manse. Special thanks to Michael and Terri Lindvall for their hospitality.

We organized and staffed an informational “Welcome Table” at all Coffee Hours and other Brick events. At this table we offer friendly guidance on how to join the church. We often seek out new faces at coffee hour rather than wait for them to find us!

Hosted a June new member cook-out. This was our second year trying this, and it was once again a success! The gathering allowed new members a chance to socialize with one other and to chat informally with members and hear about ways to get involved.

We reached out to new members through our New Members Assimilation effort. This program offers guidance about how to get involved in the life of the church. Each of our committee members contacts new members to welcome them. We have expanded this program even further this year to include a specific “mentoring” element. Each member of the committee is paired with or more new members to answer questions and help integrate them into active membership at Brick. This promotes a more personal welcome and facilitates communication between new members and their mentees. Mentoring has been our primary focus this year and to this end, we are constantly looking for ways to improve all of our points of contact with new members.

We supported the group of Prayer Partners who offer members and visitors a time of prayer and reflection following worship each Sunday.

The committee is: Abe Cary, chair; Mary Groves, recording secretary; Daniel Raglan, Anna Caspersen, Cherrise Cederqvist, Darin Eydenberg, Pam Ferguson; Suzanne Wilson; Allston Chapman; Kent McKamy, Paul Ruane, Sam Seraphim, Rev. Doug King and Rev. Erin Keys, pastor liaisons; and Tanisha Carrell, staff liaison.

ABE CARY, CHAIR

PERSONNEL AND ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

The Personnel and Administration Committee oversees personnel policies and procedures, evaluation of administrative, clerical and custodial staff, the setting of performance standards and related compensation issues. The Committee reviews the Pastors, Minister of Music and other program leaders and makes recommendations regarding their compensation and benefits.

This Committee also has responsibilities for the church offices and administrative processes and the administrative, clerical and custodial staffs. The Committee makes recommendations for budget allocations in areas of responsibility and confers with the Session and Trustees when there are mutual issues of concern.

Members of the Personnel Committee include: Sitting Elders Stuart B. Clifford, Griff W. Foxley and Nell Kleinschmidt; Trustees Frances Larseron and Margaret H. Tranbaugh ; At-Large Members Lisa Margosian, Christopher M. Mason, Frederic S. Sater, E. Deane Turner and Gregory H. Warner; and Ex Officio Members Michael Lindvall and Laila Al-Askari.

The Committee recognizes that The Brick Presbyterian Church is blessed with a wonderful staff that is dedicated to the mission of the church. We endeavor to provide them all the support we can as they carry out this mission.

NELL F. KLEINSCHMIDT, CHAIR

SEMINARY FIELD EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Our three Seminary Students began at The Brick Church on September 29, 2010, and on that evening our Committee met with them at dinner. Noah Kennedy and Laldinpuia Rodawla (Lal) are second year students and Margaret Mitsuyasu, who is returning to Brick Church a second year, is a senior at Princeton Theological Seminary. The Rev. Chase Hunt is our program coordinator and has been fully involved in all aspects of their time with us.

Our students come on Wednesdays and Sundays. On Wednesdays they participate in staff meetings, colloquiums with our pastors and the Rev. Chase Hunt, and in Session committee meetings. On Sundays, they play an active role in our Worship Service, and before Worship they help our Sunday School teachers, and on several Sundays have run our pre-Worship Adult Education classes. All three students are actively involved in Confirmation Class. Each of them preach three times at Wednesday Chapel Service while they are with us.

As a committee, we met with all three students and asked them to critique their experience with us and to give us feedback about improving the program. Overall, they are well satisfied with their program, but expressed a need for help and guidance with the business side of being pastors. We plan to engage the chairs of several committees, including Budget and Stewardship, for meetings with our students.

Our recruiting for next year is well advanced. We have had two successful visits to Princeton Seminary, meeting with more than a dozen interested students. The word is out from our past and current students that we have an excellent program. We have one acceptance, and expect that we will have next year's team in place in April.

Our grateful thanks to our Committee Members, Becca Davies, Bill King, Chris Mason, Keny McKamy, Helen Pennoyer, Kurt Roeloffs, and Bill Ryckman. Our committee expresses special thanks for the time, commitment and deep interest of our Pastors and Chase Hunt.

STEWARDSHIP Acts of Grace COMMITTEE

Economic headwinds continued to challenge Brick Presbyterian Church during the prior 2009 – 2010 Stewardship campaign year. While the Brick community responded with generosity to the 2009-2010 campaign, pledging approximately $2,166,000, these dollars fell short of the church's goal for the second consecutive year. The shortfall necessitated critical yet unsustainable budgetary cuts including decreased outreach efforts as well as deferral of non-essential maintenance projects. Still, through the hard work of the Joint Finance Committee, those cuts were as slim as they could be under the circumstances.

Looking forward with both a spirit of hope as well as faith in our members' commitment to The Brick Church, the Stewardship Committee selected the 2010-2011 Campaign theme, Acts of Grace and accepted the pledge goal of $2,200,000. This dollar amount is ambitious but remains a level that the Stewardship Committee feels can and must be achieved.

Though financial challenges remain for many of our members, the Brick Church community has so far responded with its signature generosity to the current 2010-2011 Campaign.

As of April 26, 2011, our congregation had pledged over $2.2 million, and we have achieved our goal. 279 households increased their pledges, and 85 households who did not pledge during the last campaign have participated this year, increasing our participation percentage to roughly 86 percent. This positive direction ultimately should allow us to stabilize the church's finances and plan, thoughtfully and accurately, for future years.

In light of new and perhaps long-term economic realities, the Committee has devoted tremendous time to discussing how best to structure its efforts. Three areas of particular focus have been 1) educating new members regarding the role of Stewardship in church membership 2) bringing active but historically non-pledging members into Stewardship and 3) clarifying for all members the direct connection between Stewardship and Church budget. Additionally we have reintroduced the Planned Giving effort as a Stewardship subcommittee under the able leadership of Pete Palmer.

Your Stewardship Committee remains very focused, responding to the current economic challenges as well as to the impact those challenges have had upon our church families. We view our collective call not simply to help fund the budget but, as importantly, to help educate, enlighten, and engage our congregation. The success of this year's campaign can be attributed directly to the hard work and dedication of the Stewardship Committee whose members include: Charles Anderson, David Barrett, Jonathan Bean, Peter Brown, Lisa Clyde, Phil Falcone, Joyce Giuffra, Amanda Lister, Elizabeth Miller, Peggy Raub, and Joe Sauvage. Tanisha Carrell is our invaluable church liaison, and the Rev. Michael Lindvall provides significant campaign leadership.

If you have already pledged, we sincerely thank you. If you have not, please do so today. We remind all members that annual Stewardship participation is considered part of Brick Church membership. We thank you with deep gratitude for your consistent support of the life and mission of The Brick Presbyterian Church.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC COMMITTEE

The Session Committee of Worship and Music, working with the senior pastor, musical director, and the director of children's music; strives to shape the content, diversity, and frequency of the worship services, to ensure spiritual enrichment for all of its congregational members. This includes weekly worship music, choir ensembles, Holy Communion, and Baptisms. With Session approval, the committee oversees and schedules Holy Communion; enlisting church officers to serve the congregation, and coordinate the chancel committee to prepare the elements on a monthly basis. Communion is served on the first Sunday of each month, during significant holidays, and every Wednesday morning. The committee also schedules and coordinates the sacrament of Baptism and assigns Elders to assist in the service, and provides guidance to families as they take part in a significant part of their child's spiritual development. Each month the committee reviews regular Sunday and special worship services, and oversees the Ushers Association and the Order of St. Paul to ensure a smooth and pleasant service for all attendees.

Of important notice for 2011; the committee will improve its sanctuary decorating efforts, by creating an official sub-committee to oversee and manage all celebratory activities that are integral to the life of the body of the Church. Both Terry Lindvall and Marta King have gladly accepted our request to lead this effort, and we look forward to having their guidance and enthusiasm in this important role. In addition, we have started to explore the possibility of additional worship services to satisfy a wide range of members. Finally, as an annual tradition; the committee with the musical director, hosted a Christmas party for the choir after the Candlelight Carol Service, which has become a welcoming and successful event to show appreciation for all of their service.

The Worship and Music Committee consists of: Christopher Randall (elder and chair), Daniel P. Raglan (elder), Grace Diggs (communion), Fritz Ehlert (ushers), Frederic Sater (baptisms), Pamela Ferguson (chancel), Len Carrell (Order of St. Paul), Thomas Robinson (secretary), Ellsworth Stanton (Clerk of Session), and Diantha Redd. Advisors to the committee are the Rev. Michael Lindvall (Senior Pastor), Keith Tóth (Minister of Music and organist), and Amanda Page Smith (Director of Children's Music Ministry).

DEACONS' MINISTRY REPORTS

Cooks Who Care delivers warm, hearty meals and snacks 52 weeks a year to eight HIV/AIDS clients living in single residence occupancies on the Upper West Side of Manhattan. Working in tandem with Health Bridge (an agency providing social and health services to HIV/AIDS clients), Cooks Who Care has prepared and delivered more than 400 meals this year, involving many Brick Church families and friends. Cooks Who Care gives volunteers the satisfaction of planning, cooking, and delivering meals to people who both need and appreciate them. Sometimes this is the only meal the recipients receive all weekend, so, needless to say, the mission is an important one. Repeat volunteering is the norm because those who sign up find the experience highly gratifying. It is a great opportunity to share a ministry with friends and family by doing it together. The weekly commitment requires a few hours of cooking (at home or in The Brick Church kitchen) followed by delivery on Saturday afternoons between 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

DEACONS' OUTREACH CHRISTMAS PARTY

One of the highlights of the Christmas season at Brick Church continues to be the Deacons' Outreach Christmas Party. This year we had the opportunity to partner with a wonderful organization, Mentoring USA. With our ever-enthusiastic group of volunteers, we hosted 45 children and their mentors for a day of Christmas celebration and fun. Founded in 1987 by Matilda Cuomo and led by Stephen Powell, Mentoring USA has been matching children with positive inspirational role models who provide on-site individual attention and guidance amongst the child's peers and promoting an overall supportive and positive environment for all involved. Many of the children in the program are currently in the foster care system, so the one-on-one relationships established are particularly important to the participants.

The festivities included family portraits, musical entertainment, Nintendo Wii stations, Pop-a-Shot Basketball, face painting, arts and crafts activities, a raffle and shopping mall as well as a festive lunch and a jolly visit from Santa. We are ever thankful to Robbie Brown and Chris Kahn at the Corcoran Realty Group for their annual donation of toys to this event, as well as the NBC Today Show Toy Drive, Kathleen Donovan of Cutco and the many families of The Brick School and members of our Congregation.

Most of all, this party would not have been a success without the hard work, energy, smiles and warm hearts of our many volunteers who chose to spend their Saturday in fellowship and outreach during this very busy time of year.

DRIVES

There is a tremendous need for a healthy and consistent supply of blood, and the Brick Church community has always responded generously. The Deacons at Brick Church conducted two blood drives this year to help replenish New York City's blood supply. The first drive was held on Sunday, February 28, 2010 and the next drive was held on Sunday, October 31, 2010. Despite revised donor eligibility guidelines which have been tightened significantly over the last few years, Brick Church parishioners and other neighbors donated many pints of blood between our spring and fall drives. In fact, the October blood drive was very successful, yielding 37 pints of blood (which was the second highest drive on record). The Brick Church's ongoing commitment to the New York Blood Center helped supply nearly 200 hospitals in our area.

Although there is a core of dedicated donors within The Brick Church and other organizations in the community, the crisis and need continues to deepen. The restrictions on who can donate have tightened as officials work to guarantee the safety of our blood supply. Hence, we must continue to work to increase the core level of donors each year. Our month-long effort before each drive to expand the donor database includes a broad email campaign, phone calls, church announcements, distribution of flyers, and weekly sign-up solicitations in order to ensure a healthy turnout for the blood drive.

COLETTE BRYCE AND MATIAS STITCH

During the past year, residents of the Neighborhood Coalition for Shelter (“NCS”) have been dining with members of The Brick Church every Friday evening (Friday Night Dinner Program or “FNDP”). The NCS 81st Street Residence is a long term, supportive housing facility for people who have come through their shelter program. Formerly homeless, the residents live independently but, like all of us, need some support and tender loving care. Brick Church has had a long-standing and close friendship with NCS. NCS also participates in the Brick Church Day of Discipleship.

Each week, Brick Church volunteers plan the dinner menu, and then purchase and cook the food to be served. Most importantly, volunteers sit and enjoy food and fellowship with the NCS residents. The second, fourth and fifth Fridays are coordinated by Deacons Cristina Soto, Hamburg Tang and Stephen Day, along with volunteers from the congregation and beyond. The hosts meet to prepare and cook the meal at 5:00 p.m., greet their guests at 6:30 p.m. and enjoy dinner together until 7:30 p.m.

Deacon hosted evenings have returned to be on site at the NCS location on 211 East 81st Street. This has resulted in a large increase in attending guests from NCS with approximately 25 to 30 dinners being served. Week after week, we serve up good food, have interesting conversations and share a warm camaraderie with our neighbors from NCS. It’s a wonderful way to spend a Friday night.

FRIDAY NIGHT DINNER PROGRAM

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Habitat for Humanity - NYC transforms lives and our city by uniting New Yorkers around the cause of decent and affordable housing for everyone. Founded in 1984 as an independent affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, Habitat - NYC builds in all five boroughs. Habitat - NYC's recently completed projects include a 41-unit newly constructed condominium building in Ocean Hill - Brownsville, Brooklyn. Its Atlantic Avenue complex is the largest multifamily Habitat project ever and meets LEED's stringent green standards.

Homes are built with the "sweat equity" of family partner homeowners who work side-by-side with volunteers. Professional contractors build the exterior shells to code, and the volunteers do the interior construction. In addition to home building, Habitat - NYC also sponsors "Brush with Kindness" projects in schools, church halls, and community centers in the areas where Habitat construction sites are located. These projects consist of painting, minor construction, or cleaning in an effort to help the communities where Habitat's family partners reside. Each year thousands of New Yorkers from faith institutions, corporations, schools and civic groups volunteer at Habitat projects throughout the city.

This Deacon ministry enthusiastically supports the agenda of Habitat for Humanity-NYC. In 2010 the Brick Church provided 5-7 volunteers for three Saturdays during the year between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Brick Church volunteers participated in "Brush with Kindness" projects in Brooklyn and the Bronx, as well as home-building project in Brooklyn. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age, but brawn and construction experience are not necessary. Habitat provides us with all tools, materials and training. At the end of the day, volunteers leave with a well-deserved sense of accomplishment. They have joined in fellowship with other Brick Church members and brought a family closer to the dream of owning their home.

INWOOD HOUSE

Founded in 1830, Inwood House's mission is to help young people become healthy, capable adults. The Maternity Residence and Learning Center is an integral part of this program, providing pregnant teens, some homeless and some from the foster care system, with a safe place to live. Prenatal care, counseling, parenting classes, high school equivalency classes, assistance with pursuit of a college degree, job training and interview skills are among the services in which Inwood House provides its clients. It is at the Maternity Residence that members of The Brick Church gather every other Tuesday to run and Arts and Crafts program for the girls. All projects are interactive and provide the girls with an hour for themselves where they relax, socialize and focus on creating something for themselves and their babies.

JENNY ELMLINGER, SHANNON HENDERSON AND SANDY SHAW

Jan Hus Presbyterian Church has a long history in New York City as an active advocate for disenfranchised members of the community. Its Homeless Outreach and Advocacy Program (HOAP) provides a variety of direct services to those in need, from a weekly dinner program and pantry services to counseling, referrals, and emergency grants. HOAP also works in coalition with other organizations to mobilize and advocate for a change in policies that affect the low-income, poor and homeless populations of New York City.

2010 ACTIVITIES INCLUDED:

Jan Hus/Habitat: In March, Jan Hus Deacons and Brick volunteers worked alongside Habitat for Humanity Deacons to paint the kitchen of Jan Hus.

Day of Discipleship: In May, Jan Hus participated in Day of Discipleship. Many Brick volunteers sorted, organized and packed first aid kits and food to give to the homeless. The Brick Confirmation class was also at hand to paint murals to brighten up the outdoor spaces of the building.

In September, the Jan Hus Deacons met with Pastor Ray Bagnuolo to discuss projects that Jan Hus would like to take forward. Several projects were discussed, and it was decided to implement some of the initiatives, including:

Brick Night at Jan Hus: In the fall Brick inaugurated a monthly Brick Night where Jan Hus Deacons and Brick volunteers help set up, serve and clean up the Tuesday night dinner service at Jan Hus. Jan Hus deacon Jamie Lindemuth also added the highly popular entertainment portion of the evening in the form of movies being shown upstairs prior to each dinner service during these Brick Nights.

Jobs Mentoring Program Pilot: Also in the fall, Jan Hus Deacon Peter Bohner agreed to lead a new initiative to support Jan Hus homeless guests, willing and able to work, to find jobs. The mentoring program will focus on resume writing, interviewing, basic computer skills, and finding job opportunities. Jan Hus is currently identifying likely candidates to participate in the pilot.

Creative Writing Workshop: Jan Hus Deacon Stephen Elliot agreed to assist Pastor Ray in providing guidance to the writers among the guests at Jan Hus in these creative writing workshops.

JAN HUS HOMELESS OUTREACH AND ADVOCACY PROGRAM

SEARCH AND CARE

Search and Care provides social services to elderly, homebound persons living between 86th and 106th streets, comprising Carnegie Hill, Yorkville, and East Harlem in Manhattan. The mission of Search and Care is to seek out and assist older persons who need help managing life's daily activities or accessing essential services, and to provide them the support and companionship they require to live with security and dignity.

This not-for-profit, nonsectarian social services agency was formed in 1972, and has served more than 7,000 community residents, typically over the age of 60, through a collaboration of experienced social workers, graduate interns (social work, nursing, occupational therapy), and carefully selected volunteers. Search and Care staff make home visits, assist in finding homecare, arrange for meals and medical care, and assist with paying bills. They also provide counseling, facilitate social opportunities, and assist each individual with accessing benefits and entitlements. A unique feature of Search and Care is their extended evening and Saturday hours, which enables its staff to assist elders who are at risk at times when other agencies may not be available.

The Brick Church's involvement with Search and Care is multi-faceted and a true collaboration. Search and Care volunteers contribute by providing much needed companionship to those who have little or no family support in the community. Volunteers also escort clients to medical appointments and on shopping trips, as well as caring for their pets when needed. The Sentinel Committee, developed by Search and Care, consists of members who act as the eyes and ears of the community, improving on ways to identify isolated older people in the community who may be in need. A number of Brick parishioners have been referred to Search and Care, and are receiving the wide range of services offered. Deacon Patricia Chapman provides companionship and serves as an escort to elderly clients, and both she and Ann Darmstaetter serve on the Sentinel Committee as well as provide assistance to the staff of Search and Care at their offices.

In September, the fifth and sixth grade Pioneers decorated 60 flower pots and wrote inspirational cards for Search and Care clients who were attending a picnic in nearby Conservatory Garden. In October, Brick hosted its third annual VocalEase Concert with Search and Care in the Carnegie Room. The VocalEase group consists of professional Broadway performers who provided a cabaret-style show for our community elders' enjoyment. Patricia Chapman, Ann Darmstaetter, and Co-Moderator Michael Barnes assisted in hosting this event, which was also attended by some of our Brick seniors. Everyone was delighted and inspired by the performance, particularly its concluding musical number "Impossible Dream"! In December, we hosted the Sentinel Committee in our Dining and Living Rooms, where members were educated by a local etymologist regarding New York's bed bug concern.

Our relationship with Search and Care is reciprocally beneficial. It presents a wonderful opportunity for us to lend our support and assistance to seniors in the community in which we live, and provides a resource for our senior Brick Church parishioners who wish to remain at home in their golden years.

PATRICIA CHAPMAN

Yorkville Common Pantry (YCP) is the largest community-based food pantry in New York City. In its 30th year of operation, YCP remains committed to reducing hunger for individuals and families in New York City while promoting dignity and self-sufficiency. YCP champions the cause of the hungry through food pantry and meal distribution programs, nutrition education, basic hygiene services, homeless support, and related services. In 2010, YCP's pantry program served over two million meals to nearly 18,000 people. Its community-based programs focus on East Harlem and other underserved communities throughout New York City.

As a founding partner of Yorkville Common Pantry in 1980, The Brick Church continues to be one of its greatest supporters. The Deacon Ministry participates in two major church-wide food or supply drives each year. This year at each drive 300 bags were distributed to the congregation and were returned full of the requested items, including canned goods, juice, tea, coffee and toiletries. The annual Day of Discipleship in May provided church members an excellent opportunity to get a firsthand look at Yorkville Common Pantry's operations while preparing sandwiches and brown bag lunches at their headquarters. In early November, a group of 17 Brick volunteers took over the Saturday food pantry distribution for the first time, preparing and handing out over 500 bags of groceries. It was a very fulfilling day of service for the group. Later that month, there was a collection to help YCP provide Thanksgiving turkeys to families in need. The congregation raised over $10,000 for the 2010 Turkey Drive.

The YCP ministry is grateful for the enthusiastic involvement of The Brick Church School, which participated in three drives throughout the year as well as the Thanksgiving Turkey Drive. The children were asked to bring a specific item, such as cereal, juice boxes, canned goods or toiletries to Wednesday chapel where they carried the donations to the front of the chapel during the service. This was a tangible way to teach the children the importance of giving to those who are less fortunate.

We continue to think of new ways to expand this significant outreach ministry for the church and the school.

LINDSAY HIGGINS AND LAUREN STAHL

YORKVILLE COMMON PANTRY

YOUTH MINISTRY

The Youth Ministry is new this year, and is responsible for coordinating volunteer needs within the individual Deacon ministries with the various Brick Youth groups looking for volunteer opportunities. These projects could involve an entire youth group or be one-off volunteer opportunities for youths wanting to accumulate community service hours.

Many group volunteering opportunities have presented themselves. In September, Jackie Hennessey and Trish Chapman coordinated a Pioneers (fifth and sixth grade program) project, in which Brick Pioneers painted and planted flowers in flower pots for distribution to Search and Care. In January, Lauren Stahl, Lindsay Higgins and Dru Haskin organized a YCP service project during the annual Pioneers sleepover, in which Pioneers made and delivered approximately 100 brown bag lunches for YCP recipients. In addition, Pioneers have also participated in FNDP. Other less structured opportunities arose during the Deacon's Christmas Party as Pioneers and younger Brick children attended the event and played games with the guest children. As evidenced above, the volunteering programs have gained a lot of traction with younger Brick youths, such as the Pioneers, and we also plan to have volunteer opportunities for older Brick youths during the Day of Discipleship.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Brick Church Women's Association had an exciting and challenging year. We had increased participation in our programs and we continue to be successful in raising funds for the 14 outreach ministries we support. Established 92 years ago, our three-part mission of providing services and support to our church community, fostering fellowship within that community and raising funds for our ministries, remains our goal today. We were most pleased to be able to assist the Church's budget in 2010 with a gift of $15,000 from our reserves.

Women's Association committees provide services that are important in the life of the church. The Chancel Committee, chaired by Nicole Cunningham, Pam Ferguson, Lindsay Higgins, Mimi Hah and Jayne Napier, regularly prepares communion for 18 Sundays and holidays. The beautiful gardens surrounding the church are tended by Cynthia Coulson, Susan Crary, Elizabeth Miller. Our Sunday Hospitality Chairs, Susan Frehse and Brooke Ooten, arranged for members to pour coffee during Sunday Coffee Hours. The Sanctuary Decorating Committee, VeVe Brown, Saskia Evans, Shannon Froehlich, and Jill Worth did a magnificent job with the Easter Lilies program. Tender-Loving-Care Chairs Alison Brown, Jill Lampe, Stephanie Nelson and Betsey Pick sweetly prepare and deliver meals to members in distress, and we are responsible for the Sunday Memorial Flowers.

Our Fellowship Chairs, Deirdre Bader, Natalie Clare, Lucy Cary, and Lauren Stahl, provide fellowship opportunities to our congregants. They, along with a slew of members, organize our Fellowship Events. More than 225 members attended Fall Fling in September, the Family Easter Tea Party brought the younger members and their parents and grandparents together, and the Spring Luncheon, attended by more than 100 women, introduced us to each other. Our adorable Mom's Morning Out group is chaired by Susie Anderson and

Holly Wamser and brings babies, toddlers and moms together. Education Chairs Virginia Apple and Ashley Reid, planned the successful Lenten Bible Studies. All these members did a great job making these events warm and friendly.

The Brick Church Fair, a tradition for 67 years, is the Women's Association's only fundraising event. The Fair is comprised of the Children's Fair, the Christmas Fair, two Rummage Sales, a Spring Boutique and the Dinner Dance, and the Silent Auction. The success of the Fair enabled us to continue to support our outreach grant-giving and our ongoing scholarship program. This year's Fair was led by our dedicated and talented chairs, Shannon Henderson, Pamela Ryckman, Neda Navab and Paige Rustum. We were also pleased to share the success of the Fair with a contribution of $12,000 to the church's operating budget.

In 2010, the Women's Association was blessed to be able to award grants of $85,000 to 14 programs, which included tutoring, camps for children with special needs, and elderly lunch programs. I would like to thank our dedicated Outreach Committee, chaired diligently by Brenda Earl, for its research, dedication and integrity. Thanks also to the Scholarship Chairs, Becca Davies and Helen Penoyer, for their hard work in granting quality-of-life scholarship grants of $22,500 to our own Brick Church community.

We are very proud of our Outreach Volunteer Program at The Children's Storefront. For the third year, 20 Brick Church members, scheduled and organized by chair Sophie Kramer, volunteer to be classroom assistants. These members are doing a wonderful job of making a difference in the children's lives.

The Women's Association is blessed to have such a bright and generous group of women that run our board. Thank you to the Executive Committee: Jackie Hennessey, Lucinda Bhavsar, Anna Caspersen, Maryellen Cundey, Brenda Earl, Neda Navab and Jill Lampe. Thanks also go to our meticulous recording secretary Dru Haskin, our corresponding secretary Holly Burke, and our dedicated at-large members, Nealy Clifford and Christie Winmill. Thanks also go to the many members who help us with the board programs; Communications Chairs Stephanie Vartughian and Claudia Simmons, Nominating Chair Elizabeth Porteous, New Members Chairs Kerri Devine and Janet Ley, and Day School Representative, Georgia Burger. Thank you each and for your guidance and support.

Mostly thank you to all the faithful and loyal volunteers who share their talents with us, so that we together can help others in need. Thank you to Michael Lindvall, Doug King, Christy Lang and Erin Keys for their constant support and guidance. In addition, thank you to the Brick Church staff and the Brick Church school. And finally, a special thank you to Carol Ann Mercer, our Women's Association Coordinator, for sharing her knowledge, enthusiasm, and true understanding of the mission we all strive to fulfill.

We look forward to the challenges that await us in 2011. We all take great pride in supporting our church and raising funds for the community, as well as providing fellowship and spiritual growth for all.

COMMUNITY REPORTS

During 2010, Boy Scout Troop 662 did the following:

1. Held 35 weekly meetings;
2. Went on seven weekend camping trips;
3. Attended Scout summer camp;
4. Held day outings for swimming, bowling and skiing as well as nature hikes;
5. Distributed carol sheets at the Park Avenue Christmas Tree lighting.

We also had one scout attain the Eagle Scout Award and will have three more finishing their requirements this spring.

The participation in scouting is at the highest level seen in over a decade. We now are 30 strong with an additional 20 in the Cub Scout program.

Cub Scouts are for boys from age 7 to 10 and Boy Scouts is for those 11 to 18 years of age. The programs meet in Watson Hall on Wednesdays with the Cubs from 3:45 to 5 p.m. and the Boy Scouts meet from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

To learn more about scouting come down to a meeting or you may call Kevin Ryan at 212-426-5777.

GIRL SCOUTS

The 2nd Grade Brownies participated in a Flower Ceremony, Bird Watching with Lisa McCarthy, a Local Bird Watcher, and Invertebrates study with Mark Siddall, father of Ali Siddall, and Scientist at the Museum of Natural History. In December, we made beautiful Gingerbread Houses, and then we rang in the new year with organized exercises and discussed importance of exercise. The girls also made friendship bracelets, discussed friendships and donated slightly used shoes to African Children. In March, a local Irish Dance troop of young girls taught our girls Irish Dancing. A field trip was made to the Madam Alexander doll factory and museum and the girls finished the year with a party.

The 4th Grade Jr. Girl Scouts had many adventures this year, starting in September with an Audubon led bird-watching expedition. The girls continued their interest in natural science with a sailing expedition on the Clearwater Sloop learning about the Hudson River's ecology and conservation. In November, we took a special trip to the King Tut Exhibition. At our community service meeting in December, we were visited by the Community Outreach Coordinator of Ronald Mc-Donald House. After learning more about the services RMH provides to families of sick children, the girls decided to use the proceeds raised by our month-long cookies sale to outfit the playroom at RMH with an Xbox-Kinect and various games. In the new year the girls visited the Jewish Museum, learned Classical Indian Dance, culture and cuisine. In 2011 the girls focused on their career badge for journalism, where in addition to learning how to craft a resume, were visited by the television journalist mother of one of our girls, who spoke about being a correspondent. Later we toured the Wall Street Journal. The girls also learned about the jewelry industry with another mother, a gem buyer for Tiffany's, and attended the Cooper-Hewitt Museum's Van Cleef and Arpels exhibit. The year is expected to culminate with a weekend trip to Camp Kaufmann, the Girl Scouts Camp in Dutchess County.

We are so grateful to all at Brick Church for your wonderful hospitality! We really appreciate your hosting our troops and are hope to continuing our relationship again this coming year.

KEEP FIT CLASSES

Watson Hall has been the site of Keep Fit classes for the past 41 years. These exercise classes are designed for men and women of all ages that allow one to choose in making these classes challenging or just a nice toning program.

Music for the Keep Fit classes consists of anything from Broadway show tunes to Big Band to Rock n' Roll to Classical. Sessions are held on Mondays and Thursdays at 10:30 a.m., and Tuesdays at 5:15 p.m. The classes incorporate hand weights and exercise bands, body alignment, stretching, balance and CORE exercises, and dance. Brick Church members and non-members alike are welcome.

We are pleased that each year enrollment continues to grow! There is a tuition fee for each of the three terms of about 10 to 15 weeks. We also offer a trial class. Come and have a fun, positive experience!

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION AND

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION

The Corporation is managed by a 12-person Board of Trustees responsible for maintaining the buildings and grounds, the endowment funds, and the fiscal well being of the church. Various committees address specific areas of interest and may include other church members with relevant expertise. Our paramount responsibility is to manage a comprehensive church investment and endowment strategy and maintain sound financial operations. The Trustees' Investment Committee, chaired so ably by Horace Crary consists of nine members of the congregation, expert in asset management, the Senior Pastor, the Director of Administration and Finance, and Treasurer, Roger Miller, ex officio. Under their guidance the endowment has performed well this year. A separate report is included herein. Laila Al-Askari, our capable Director of Administration and Finance, deserves special recognition for her work in managing our operations as efficiently as she does.

A continuing priority is managing The Brick Church's extensive facilities. Under the leadership of Building and Grounds Chairman, Bryce MacDonald, the committee has been expanded greatly and has done excellent work in maintaining our facilities and in continuing our efficiency programs, working with Rob Dayboch, our Facilities Manager. A separate report is included herein.

In June, 2010 the trustees formed the Long Range Facilities Committee (LRFC) and asked Elder David Meachin to chair it. The committee is focused on the long term real estate needs of the Church - for the housing of pastors and also for possible future extensions of Parish House offices or the Day School. Having a committee focused on long-range plans, as well as at the same time being well informed of opportunities in the real estate market in the vicinity of the Church, the needs of the Church and an appreciation of the Church's overall resources, will mean that the Church can act speedily, decisively and, where appropriate, opportunistically, as needed.

In November 2008, another ad hoc committee, The Columbarium Committee, formed by the Trustees and chaired by me, researched the merits of having a columbarium at Brick Church and completed initial work on site location, design and structure. The economic crisis put a damper on proceeding with the plan. In 2010 there was a strong desire to revive the project. The Long Range Facilities Committee took over this committee's mandate and conducted additional research and financial analysis that made a compelling case for constructing the columbarium in 2011.

FRANCES G. LASERSON, PRESIDENT

The Endowment Fund

The Trustees' Investment Committee (TIC) oversees the management of the Endowment Fund, which, on December 31, 2010, had total assets of $33.9 million, up from $29.0 million a year earlier. The increase during the year reflected the strong rebound of the financial markets that started in March of 2009 and is net of the approximately 5 percent draw on the endowment used to help fund the Church's operations (based on a three-year rolling average of the assets). The endowment was also bolstered in 2010 by a very significant and generous contribution from the Falcone family. The overall return for 2010 was 12.8 percent and outperformed its benchmark in 2010 by 1.0 percent. Longer term, the portfolio's relative performance has been strong, out-performing its benchmark over the three-, five- and 10-year periods, net of fees.

As everyone is aware, 2008 and the first two months of 2009 were a time of extraordinary peril in the capital markets and the economy. The Church's endowment was helped during this period by a high allocation to fixed income and hedge funds (41.6 percent as of year-end 2010), which performed well on a relative basis during the downturn. It is worth specially noting that the portfolio's three-year performance, which includes this very difficult period, returned a positive 1.8 percent (annualized, net of fees) compared to the benchmark and the S&P500 which both had negative annualized returns of -1.2 percent and -2.9 percent, respectively. Although the relative performance was strong during this period, if it were not for the generous gift, the endowment would have lost value in absolute terms, since the portfolio returned less than the 5 percent draw on the endowment to help fund the Church's operations.

Since August 2006 the TIC has been advised by Colonial Consulting, LLC with respect to asset allocation, manager selection and performance measurement. We have a disciplined, strategic asset allocation policy that helps us maintain a long-term orientation in troubling times as well as to keep us prudently invested during bull markets. The portfolio's diversification provides a good degree of downside protection, while targeting a return on our investment that will preserve the endowment's purchasing power after inflation and the draw on the endowment. Colonial Consulting conducts extensive on-going due diligence on all of our investment managers and we had the good fortune to avoid any blow-ups, fraud or liquidity crises with our investments and asset managers.

The Investment Committee benefits from the dedication and very high level of investment expertise provided by its members: Jim Awad, Henry Barkhorn, Bibi Conrad, Michael Fisch, Roger Miller, Kurt Roeloffs, Rick Stowe, and Deane Turner. Fran Laserson is ex officio.

Overall, the TIC and Colonial believe that the endowment has held up well in this very volatile environment and we remain confident that this portfolio is well positioned for the future.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

The Buildings and Grounds Committee completed several large projects in 2010 and focused on improving the comfort and efficiency of the building as well as planning for the future.

The Art Studio on the sixth floor was completed, and on October 7, it was dedicated in honor of Dr. Lydia Spinelli, director of the school. The sixth floor administrative offices were completely gutted and renovated.

Other construction and maintenance projects include:

- New insulated windows in Watson Hall;
- New interior storm windows in administrative offices reduced drafts and added soundproofing;
- The 93rd Street manse was renovated with new plaster, paint and floor refinishing.

Other projects included repair of a major 91st street roof leak, replacement of numerous steam traps, pumps and tanks, and replacement of the boiler chimney.

In 2010 we spent $866,684 on the building operations, which was $25,169 variance from the budget. 2010 was the hottest summer on record in New York and it showed in the electric bill for air conditioning; not including the electric being 58 percent over budget all the other operations were within budget. Capital spending on various church and school projects totaled $286,373; the largest project was the renovation of the sixth floor church offices for $167,268. The portion of art studio construction paid in 2010 was $134,424 and was funded by a donor separately from the other projects.

Given that utilities are more than 20 percent of the building operating budget, ($200,000) in 2010, we continue to look for ways to save energy. We programmed the thermostats to set back or turn off heat and air conditioning in unoccupied areas. Most notably, the heating and cooling in the sanctuary is now programmed to swing from 63 to 78 degrees, depending on the season, when the sanctuary is not in use which is more than 95 percent of the time. Thanks to Minister of Music Keith Toth for pointing out that the sanctuary only needs to be kept at 72 degrees when the organ is being played for services or concerts.

The B&G committee has expanded its membership and now keeps minutes of its meetings. We are formalizing policies and procedures based on guidelines from the Presbytery as well as building industry best practices. The financial reporting on building operations and capital spending has been improved so we can track the life cycle costs of building systems as well as quantify the return on investment for energy savings investments.

B&G is working closely with the Long Range Facilities Committee to plan for Brick Church's future needs including renovations and alterations. In the words of Winston Churchill: "We shape our buildings and our building shape us." B&G is also undertaking surveys, inspection and inventories of all building systems so we can plan for replacements before things wear out and cause more damage—it's cheaper to replace the roof before it leaks. Knowing exactly what we have permits us to plan our repair and capital projects and budgets more prudently.

I would like to thank our staff: Laila Al-Askari, Rob Dayboch and the sextons; Architect Jeff Lydon; and B&G Committee members: Don Allison, Raymond Bouderau, Timothy Haskin, Charles Higgins, Sara Hurst Jenoure, George Petrides, Don M. Wilson, III, and Robert Williams.

Operating Surplus/Deficit	$248,930	($301,597)

The church remained within its budget due to close monitoring of expenditures by church staff and session committees and we were able to operate within the budgeted drawdown of 5 percent.

*Authorized Drawdown from Endowment: The Endowment is managed on a "total return" basis. Historically, the Board of Trustees has established 5 percent of the three-year moving average of the market value of the endowment funds to be a prudent draw to support the church operating budget.

 The church does not capitalize and depreciate its expenditures for capital projects. In lieu of depreciation, an allowance is made in the operating budget for future capital expenditures. The allowance of $450,000 set in recent years was reduced to $275,000 in 2010 in response to budget pressures.

This statement reflects the manner in which Church Administration, working with the Joint Finance Committee, monitors the operations of the Church and its various activities. It differs from the audited statements which adhere to accrual reporting standards and categorize activities somewhat differently. The operating surplus in 2010 is largely due to final payment in 2010 of pledges made in previous years.

COMMENTS ON THE STATEMENT OF REVENUE AND EXPENSE

The 2010 Statement of Operating Revenue and Expense is displayed in a summary sheet which is divided into a revenue statement and an expense statement. The Revenue Statement is composed of three major areas which include the Church, Day School, and the Women's Association. The Church revenue is received mainly through pledges and income on the endowment. The Day School is funded through annual tuition, the biannual auction, and contributions to the special purpose funds. The Women's Association is supported through income on its scholarship funds, annual dues, other contributions, and proceeds from the annual Fair – which includes the Children's Fair, the Christmas Fair, and the Spring Dance. The revenue for each area supports its major activities throughout the year.

The expense statement indicates the expenses for each area in the budget. The Church revenue supports all the fixed building costs, including insurance, personnel costs and all the associated costs for each committee's activities.

The Day School is assessed an annual overhead cost that is paid to the Church for general building and operating costs, and funds its operating costs for the school through the means mentioned above. For the 2009/2010 school year ended August 31, 2010 the Day School actual contribution to church overhead was $584,000. The Women's Association funds support its personnel and program costs as well as funding its scholarship and outreach programs.

The annual budget goal is to operate with a balanced budget. The budget is a guideline for expenses and therefore a forecast of what is expected to take place in the future. The 2010 Budget was approved as a balanced budget.

During 2010 expenses were closely managed due to the projected short-fall in pledge receipts. In addition to close management of expenses, several staff changes and the ability to stabilize health care expenses at the time of contract renewal contributed to the positive conclusion of the year. The Capital Budget was slightly over the budgeted $275,000 allowance in lieu of depreciation described previously and the year-end capital expenses totaled $286,373. The Buildings and Grounds Committee, in furtherance of its long-term strategic planning efforts, was able to postpone certain major projects to later years, thanks to considerable expenditures on plant and equipment in recent years.

 Although this allowance has been set at $450,000 in recent years, reflecting the size of the church plant in relation to comparable facilities, estimates of future capital requirements, and other factors, it was reduced to $275,000 in 2010 in response to budget pressures. It has been partially restored to $350,000 in the 2011 budget.
