next Sunday’s preacher will be The Rev. Douglas T. King
The reconciling work of Jesus was the supreme crisis in the life of humankind. His cross and resurrection become personal crisis, and present hope, for people when the gospel is proclaimed and believed. In this experience, the Spirit brings God's forgiveness to people, moves them to respond in faith, repentance, and obedience, and initiates the new life in Christ... The new life does not release a person from conflict with unbelief, pride, lust, or fear. They still have to struggle with disheartening difficulties and problems. Nevertheless, as they mature in love and faithfulness in their life with Christ, they live in freedom and good cheer, bearing witness on good days and evil days, confident that the new life is pleasing to God and helpful to others.
We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight

1. We walk by faith and not by sight; No gracious words we hear From Christ, who spoke as none e'er spoke; But we believe Him near.

2. We may not touch His hands and side, Nor follow where He trod; But in His promise
   we rejoice, And cry, "My Lord and God!"

3. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief; And may our faith abound To call on You when You are near And seek where You are found:

4. That, when our life of faith is done, In realms of clearer light We may behold You as You are, With full and endless sight.

Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

1. Our God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
   Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home:

2. Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received its frame,
   From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the same.

3. A thousand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone;
   Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.

4. Time, like an ever rolling stream, Soon bears us all away;
   We fly for'got ten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.

5. Our God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Our God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come.
