

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous." Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you."

God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."

THE RESPONSE

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (adapted from the Second Helvetic Confession, 5.06, 5.126)

We believe that the Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, was foreordained from eternity by the Father to be the Savior of the world. And we believe that He was born, not only when He assumed flesh of the Virgin Mary, and not only before the foundation of the world was laid, but by the Father before all eternity in an inexpressible manner. There is always but one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, Jesus the Messiah, and one Shepherd of the whole flock, one Head of this body, and, to conclude, one Spirit, one salvation, one faith, one Testament or covenant, and only one Church.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Spiritual, arr. Hal H. Hopson

“A Lenten Walk”

Jesus walked this lonesome valley; He had to walk it by Himself. Oh, nobody else could walk it for Him; He had to walk it by Himself. We must walk this lonesome valley; we have to walk it by ourselves. Oh, nobody else can walk it for us; we have to walk it by ourselves. Jesus bore the cross of sorrow; He had to bear it by Himself; Oh, nobody else could bear it for Him, He had to bear it by Himself. We must take our cross and follow; Yes, we must follow by ourselves; Oh, nobody else can follow for us, we must follow by ourselves. — anon. American
