WELCOME AND INVITATION TO THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

MINUTE FOR MISSION

Elder Bret Barasch

CHORAL INTROIT

Sing the Beauty of the Earth

Douglas Wagner (b. 1952)

Sung by the Youth Choirs

Hirona Amamiya, violin

Sing the beauty of the earth, the sea, the sky;

Sing the glory of the name that nature magnifies;

Sing the blessings of the fields, and the bounty that they yield,

Sing the clean air and water, abundant and free.

Help us, O Lord, these gifts we share,

Help us protect the land, sea, and air.

Your will be done. Our work's begun

To preserve and guard these gifts, placed in our care.

Let us value and respect for all our worth,

To preserve and to protect the riches of the earth.

Let us see our vision clear; the world around us we'll revere,

As stewards of the Lord's house forever we'll be.

Charlotte Lee

An asterisk (*) invites all to stand; items in bold typeface indicate that the congregation participates in word or song.

Nursery is available for infants through age two.

Drop off and pick up is located in the YAR classroom, on the lower floor ("Y" on the elevator).

Hymn 339

“Be Thou My Vision” is an early 20th century translation of an ancient Irish poem, Rob tu mo bhoile, A Comdi cride, dating from about A. D. 700. The poem arises out of the unique tradition of Celtic Christianity during its long independence from the Latin Christianity that prevailed in most of Europe. The tune, Slane, is a traditional Irish ballad named after the hill near Tara where St. Patrick first lit his famous Easter fires.

This Prayer of Confession will be repeated throughout the Building the House of Faith, Hope and Love stewardship series to enable it to dwell deeper within our spirits.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Adapted from Isaiah 65: 17-25

Leader: The Lord is creating a new heavens and a new earth!

People: The former things shall not be remembered or come to mind.

Leader: Be glad and rejoice forever in what the Lord is creating!

People: For the Lord is about to create the new Jerusalem!

Leader: The Lord will rejoice in Jerusalem and delight in His people.

People: No more shall the sound of weeping or the cry of distress be heard in God’s land.

Leader: Let us worship the Lord.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 339

Be Thou My Vision

Slane

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we confess that we have built our house on the sinking sand of self rather than service. We have labored in vain to fashion a world without Your wisdom. We have neglected to use Your tools of generosity and grace. Grant us courage to lay the foundation of our lives on the solid rock of Christ that we may be a stalwart against the storm of sin and greed. Build us brick by brick into the cornerstone of Christ that we may grow into a Holy Temple of the Lord. Amen.

KYRIE

Franz Schubert (1797–1828)

Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy.
 Christ, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy, Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy, have mer - cy.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Leader: As God has poured out the grace of forgiveness, love, and peace through Christ, let us share that grace with each other. Peace be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us greet one another in the name of Christ.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

 Where bright angel feet have trod,
 With its crystal tide forever
 Flowing by the throne of God?
 Yes, we'll gather at the river,
 The beautiful, the beautiful river;

 That flows by the throne of God.*

Offertory Anthem

C. H. H. Parry's anthem I Was Glad was written for the coronation of Edward VII in 1902, and was later used for the coronations of George V and Elizabeth II. In the midst of all the fanfares and exuberance expected for such occasions, Parry created a magical contrast of warmth and tenderness at the words "O pray for the peace of Jerusalem." At the first performance in 1902, the director of music, Sir Frederick Bridge, misjudged the timing and finished the anthem before the King had arrived, later having to repeat it when the right moment came. Bridge was saved by the organist, Walter Alcock, who improvised in the interim!

Hymn 371

This triumphant hymn has become a favorite at The Brick Church over the last three decades. First published in Anglican and Lutheran hymnals early in the 20th century, it was not a part of a Presbyterian collection until our current Presbyterian Hymnal of 1990. The words emphasize Christian baptismal identity (the "mark on the brow"), and understand the cross as the sign of God's power over death (the "Lamb victorious," and the "triumph" and "victory" of the last verse).

Postlude

Louis Vierne's 24 Pièces de fantaisie were inspired by his travels abroad. The second suite, from which the Toccata is excerpted, features many American dedicatees. The Toccata is dedicated to Alexander Russell, organist and professor at Princeton, and organ impresario for the Wanamaker department stores in New York and Philadelphia.

ABOUT THE BRICK CHURCH

The Brick Presbyterian Church is a lively, growing congregation that has been serving New York City since 1767. We worship every Sunday at 11 a.m. in our Sanctuary. Adult Education classes meet September through May at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings. Sunday Church School is offered for children from age two to seventh grade. We welcome all to come, visit, worship and see what Brick Church is all about! We invite you to become part of our Church community; we hold new member meetings multiple times a year.

The Brick Church is a member congregation of the Presbytery of New York City. The session appoints elders to serve as commissioners to meetings of Presbytery. In addition, elders serve on various committees when elected or appointed. The Brick Church also supports the work of the Presbytery financially through assessments and apportionments and general mission giving. In addition to supporting Presbytery mission, the church has traditionally supported a wide range of mission outreach efforts in New York City. Involvement on the national level of the Presbyterian denomination has been strong and supportive over the 250-year history of the congregation. Several ministers of The Brick Church have served as moderator of the General Assembly, the national body of our church. In fact, the Rev. John Rogers, the first minister of the Brick Church, was elected as Moderator of the First General Assembly in 1789.

THE FLOWERS in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of James Wright by Cynthia and M. Douglas Watson Jr.

NEXT SUNDAY'S SERVICE will be a Cantata service.

THE BRICK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

The fundamental mission of The Brick Church is to respond to the word of God as found in the Old and New Testaments. The Brick Church must continue its historic mission to lead, inspire and enable the public worship of God in the Presbyterian tradition in the city of New York. Our response can be witnessed in the transformed lives of our members as we celebrate the Good News proclaimed by Jesus Christ. We are committed to supporting spiritual development, Christian education and witness to our community, which will be evidenced on a daily basis not only among church members but also in our outreach to the broader world.
